

Noga Yerushalmi, PhD, is an Investment Director of the Biotechnology team, at M Ventures. Noga joined M Ventures in January 2018, bringing more than 20 years of experience in the Israeli Biotech industry. Noga is a graduate of Tel-Aviv University, and did her postdoctoral fellowship at NIH, USA. Prior to M Ventures, Noga was heading the high throughput discovery at Zetiq, heading the therapeutic team at Rosetta Genomics, VP R&D at miCure Therapeutics, leading scouting and business development at FutuRx incubator, and more. As part of her role Noga serves as a Board Director of some of M Ventures portfolio companies.